

Missouri State UNIVERSITY

MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY FILM SERIES

February 3 7:00 p.m.

Plaster Student Union Theater

1110 E. Madison Ave
Springfield, MO 65897

College of Arts & Letters
Uniting Passion and Creativity

Dept. of Media, Journalism & Film

Remembering 'The Normal Heart' Controversy in Springfield, Missouri

On FEBRUARY 3, 2011, the screening of a new

SCREENING

Empty materialism and the constraints of modern culture have pushed the unfulfilled Forrest (TODD BLUBAUGH) to a voyage of discovery. This resolute young man escapes to nature by living aboard a sailboat on a rural Missouri lake. After setting sail on his journey, he catches wind of the rebellious and free-spirited Everly (NICOLA COLLIE) and their idealistic dreams align. As they let go, they fall head first into the idea of leaving the old world far behind. Can they survive and rewrite their own rules of modern existence, or will they discover society operates its way for a reason?

After the screening, co-producer and assistant director NATHAN KINCAID will discuss his experience working on LOTAWANA, and his career as a Kansas City-based filmmaker.

Cost: FREE

Time: 7:00pm

Parking: Lot 24 (access off of National Ave, one block south of Grand St.) or Bear Park North, behind Hammons Hall. Ride the shuttle bus to the PSU.

For more information:

Email AndrewTwibell@MissouriState.edu

MSU is an EO/AA/M/F/Veterans/Disability Institution