“Winter’s Bone”
Springfield Premiere
Friday, May 14th -- 7 p.m. to 11 p.m.
Missouri State University’s
Plaster Student Union Theatre

The 2010 Sundance Grand Jury Prize winning film, Winter’s Bone, will screen in Springfield on May 14th at Missouri State University.

Synopsis:
17 year-old Ree Dolly (Jennifer Lawrence) sets out to track down her father, who has put their house up to meet his bail bond and then promptly disappears. If Ree fails to find her father, her family will be turned out into the cold Ozark woods. Risking her life by challenging her outlaw kin’s code of silence, Ree pushes through the lies, evasions and threats as she pieces together the truth about her father’s disappearance.

Based on the novel by Daniel Woodrell, WINTER’S BONE is directed by Debra Granik (DOWN TO THE BONE) and adapted for the screen by Granik and Anne Rosellini. The film stars Jennifer Lawrence, John Hawkes, Kevin Breznahan, Dale Dickey, Garret Dillahunt, Sheryl Lee, Tate Taylor and (MSU’s own) Laura Sweetser.
