

Dr. Jennifer Joslin

NACADA Associate Director & Past President of NACADA

Dr. Joslin has presented and consulted in the US and abroad on the topics of the Completion Agenda, the current climate for student success in higher education, advising training and development, social media, working with LGBTQA students, and advising administration. A native Californian, Dr. Joslin earned her Masters and PhD from The University of Iowa.

October 15, 2018

Two Presentations

Student Success Programming on a Budget: Advice for Departments and Colleges

Learn about student success trends in higher education that departments and colleges can implement even when programming and personnel budgets are restricted (or non-existent).

11AM to Noon,
Plaster Student Union 313

The NACADA Core Competencies for Academic Advisors

Learn about the broad range of understanding, knowledge, and skills that support academic advising, guide professional development, and promote the contributions of advising for student success.

12:15 to 1:15PM,
Plaster Student Union 313