2020-2021 FCTL Teaching Award for Excellence in High Impact Practices

Dr. Annice McLean, Senior Instructor, Reading, Foundations and Technology, was awarded the 2020-2021 Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning Award (FCTL) for Excellence in High-Impact Practices. She was recognized for

- Her ability to integrate digital applications and activities in a meaningful way to prepare tomorrow's teachers for an ever-expanding digital world.
- Her willingness to share the wisdom gained from her vast experiences teaching in the public schools, while challenging students for the future of education that lies ahead.
- Her dedication to immersing students in engaging and high-impact practices, which has had a positive effect on their education at Missouri State.
