2020-2021 FCTL Teaching Award for Excellence in Online Teaching

Dr. Ching-Wen Chang, Professor, Reading, Foundations and Technology, was awarded the 2020-21 Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning Award (FCTL) for Excellence in Online Teaching. She was recognized for

- Dedication to online education and teaching online for many years.
- Her ability to help her students excel in an online environment through interesting and challenging assignments.
- Commitment to student success that has made a positive impact on these students' education at Missouri State.

The FCTL Advisory Council invited her to present at Showcase to share tools and strategies she uses to support student success in the online environment. This year's Showcase on Teaching and Learning will be held virtually on August 18th.
