

Missouri State University Presents

Native American Heritage Month 2011

"Honoring Identity and Embracing Diversity"

Tuesday, November 1

4 - 6 PM
Glass Hall Field
(In Front of Glass Hall)
Native American Stickball/Lacrosse
Led by Anthropology Club

Tuesday, November 1

7 PM
Plaster Student Union 315
Native American Kick-off Celebration
Guest Speaker, Kristi Fulnecky (Comanche)

Wednesday, November 2

7 PM
622 S. Kimbrough
MSU Center for Archaeological Research
Guest Speaker and Discussion

Wednesday, November 9

11 AM - 1 PM
Plaster Student Union Club (400)
Native American Heritage Month
Celebration Luncheon
Different artifacts will be displayed and favorite Native American foods will be served
Price: $7.50

Wednesday, November 9

12 Noon "Sneak Peek" (PSU Food Court)
Full performance 7 PM (PSU Theatre)
Plaster Student Union
Hoop Dance featuring Native American
World Champion Brian Hammel
(Ho-chunk)

Tuesday, November 15

7 PM
Strong Hall 407
"Flint Knapping: The Making of Stone Tools Using Traditional Tools & Techniques"
Demonstration by Bo Brown, Flint Knapping Expert
Lecture by Dr. Elizabeth Sobel, Assistant Professor
MSU Department of Sociology & Anthropology

Wednesday, November 16

Discussion at 8 PM
Film at 9 PM
Plaster Student Union Theatre
SAC Films Presents: "In Whose Honor"

Thursday, November 17

7 PM
Plaster Student Union First Floor Atrium
Plains Indian Handgame
Led by the Yellowhair Family (Kiowa)

Saturday, November 19

10 AM - 5 PM
Cherokee Trail of Tears Park
Battlefield, Missouri
Native American Cultural Day
Authentic Native American Food, Story Tellers
Wisdom Keepers, Gourd and Straight Dancers,
Drummers, Singers, Speakers. Special Guest Aquila
The Golden Eagle from the Dickerson Park Zoo appearing from 11:30 - 12:00 and 1:00 - 1:30
For information, contact Robert at 417-224-9194
Shuttle services provided for MSU students
For shuttle reservations please call 417-836-3043 or email kbarnts@missouristate.edu

Sunday, November 20

Discussion at 8 PM
Film at 9 PM
Plaster Student Union Theatre
SAC Films Presents: "In Whose Honor"

Wednesday, November 30

7 PM
Plaster Student Union 400
Panel Discussion:
"Eliminating Stereotypes: Tribal Diversity"
Reception immediately following

Native American Heritage Exhibits and Displays will be featured throughout the month at Brick City West Gallery, Meyer Library second floor, Strong Hall fourth floor and Carrington Hall second floor.

For more information, please contact the Office of Multicultural Student Services at 417-836-3043 or 800-492-7900
Additional information may be accessed <http://www.missouristate.edu/diversity/CalendarOfEvents.htm>

Sponsors of Native American Heritage Month activities include: American Indian Student Association (AISA), Anthropology Club, Anthropology Department, Art Department, Center for Archaeological Research, Chartwells Catering/Dining Services, Meyer Library, Missouri Archaeological Society, Multicultural Resource Center, Native American Heritage Month Committee, Office of Multicultural Student Services, Office of Student Engagement, Southwest Missouri Indian Center, Student Activities Council (SAC), and Student Government Association (SGA)

Missouri State University is an EO/AA Institution

