

Doesn't That Smell Good!

Follow along with Tracy Dalton's video to fill in ideas for your food memory writings.

Prompt #1:

Prompt #2:

Prompt #3:

Remember and Write

Spend 12 minutes to describe your food memory or the snack provided by your teacher; write here and on the back. Write!

Descriptive Words

This is just a partial list of descriptors. Add more!

Five Tastes and Smell

acrid, bland, bright, briny, buttery, cooling, fruity, herbal, mellow, nutty, peppery, perfumed, piquant, robust

Texture

brittle, chewy, crisp, foamy, gelatinous, gooey, silky, slippery, sticky, velvety

Appearance

blanketed, caramelized, crusty, drowned, lackluster, leafy, limp, melted, mottled, murky, plump, sheared, shiny, smeared, spiced-dusted, sprinkled, stuffed, syrupy, tired, trembling, wet, wimpy

Sound

bubbling, crackling, fizzy, popping, sizzling, sputtering

Others

alluring, comforting, complemented, denuded, dispirited, impeccable, liberal, satisfying

(Source: Jacob, Dianne. Will Write for Food. 4th ed. Hatchette Go Books, 2021, pp. 176-77.)