

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY days

MONDAY October 1st, 2012

- What Do Teachers Really Think? 11:50 -12:45 p.m. PSU 308
* During this Brown Bag Workshop, Dr. Tom Tomasi and Dr. Becky Swearingen will share the results of the recent Academic Integrity Survey. Participants will be asked to discuss the implications of the survey and will engage in small group discussion of future directions.
- Integrity in Sports 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. KARL 102
* This panel will address why integrity is so important in sports and relate that to character in all walks of life. Ned Reynolds will pose difficult scenarios for panelists to discuss; audience questions are invited. All faculty, staff, and students are welcome to attend. The panelists exemplify integrity and strong character.

TUESDAY October 2nd, 2012

- Ethics of Political Ads 11:00 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. PSU 315
* During this Brown Bag Event, Dr. Elizabeth Dudash and her students will conduct a panel discussion on the ethics of political ads. The presentation will include examples of ads with a discussion of their truthfulness and the ethical dilemma posed.

WEDNESDAY October 3rd, 2012

- Real World Consequences of Ethical Lapses 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. PSU 313
* Think there aren't consequences for your ethical decisions? Come meet two area men, currently in the federal prison system for securities fraud and drug charges, who would beg to differ.
- Academic Integrity in the Online Environment 11:50 a.m. - 12:45 p.m. PSU 312
* During this Brown Bag Workshop, Dr. Arden Miller will share the results and implications of a research study that compared academic integrity issues in online vs. face-to-face classes. The staff at the Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning will share ways to discourage violations of academic integrity in the online environment.
- Trivia Night 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. PSU Theater
* SGA will co-sponsor this event in which student teams compete for prizes in a trivia competition centered around our Academic Integrity Policy.
