Corporate, FM — The Movie

Come see the Springfield premiere of the alumni-produced documentary, Corporate, FM. The film documents what has happened to FM radio in an era of corporate profit vs. local focus. The documentary features Slacker, Jewel, and many others involved in FM radio and the music scene. Directed by Kevin McKinney and produced by MSU alumna, Jill McKeever.

There will be a talk-back session with the filmmakers following the screening of the film. Jill is a graduate of the Electronic Arts Program who has been working in the Kansas City area since graduating from MSU in 2006.

"Corporate FM is a riveting -- and terrifying -- look at the profit-driven behind-the-scenes machinations of corporate-controlled broadcast media. It's something out of George Orwell." Charles Ferruzza, KKFI broadcaster and Kansas City reporter

"There are plenty of us who found college, community and public radio superior, and perhaps sufficient to our radio needs. But Corporate FM illuminates the ways which commercial FM's demise affects us all..." Steve Wilson, Reverberations Blog
