

For the

Greater Good

A Service-Learning Dialogue Workshop Series
Presented by the MSU Office of Citizenship & Service-Learning

The Office of Citizenship and Service-Learning (CASL)

invites you to attend the November 2013

“Brown Bag” Service-Learning Dialogue Workshop

The “Brown Bag” Service-Learning Dialogue Workshop Series, held throughout the year, focuses on Engaged Scholarship, Research, Assessment, and Programming.

November Topic: Engaged Scholarship - Publishing in the eJournal of Public Affairs

PRESENTED BY DR. MARC COOPER
MSU HISTORY PROFESSOR

Dr. Cooper’s Presentation and Discussion will include:

- *Reviewing submissions for publication
- *Basic engagement theory
- *Focus on the project
- *Project assessment
- *Putting the pieces together

Join Us on November 14, 2013

11:45 AM to 12:45 PM

PSU 313—Traywick Parliamentary Room
(Bring Your Lunch)

Session Open to Faculty, Staff, Students & Administrators

This workshop is sponsored in part by the Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning, the Office of Student Development and Public Affairs, the eJournal of Public Affairs, and the Office of Public Affairs Support.

For More Information Contact the CASL Office at: 836-5774