House of Cards

Editor: Byron Smith

House of Cards — 2013 Emmy Award-Winning Series

Hollywood editor, Byron Smith (Media Production, 1999), will return to Springfield to screen and discuss his work on the Emmy-winning Netflix Series, House of Cards. Byron has also worked as an editor on the award-winning TV series Big Love (2007-2011), Nip/Tuck (2003-2005), and many other successful feature films.

House of Cards is the acclaimed political thriller produced by David Fincher. Kevin Spacey stars as ruthless Congressman, Francis Underwood. Aided by his equally ambitious wife, played by Robin Wright, Underwood will stop at nothing to ascend the ladder of power in Washington, D.C. Season 2 begins February 14 on Netflix!

Byron will conduct a talk-back session following the screening of an episode from House of Cards on Friday, February 7, in MSU's Plaster Student Union.

He will host a master class on the art of editing on Friday, February 7th at noon in Plaster Student Union. He'll dissect a scene from Big Love, discuss the process of editing a successful TV series, and talk about working with Ryan Murphy and David Fincher.
